

Raise — The — SHED

* This is a rendering and is subject to change.

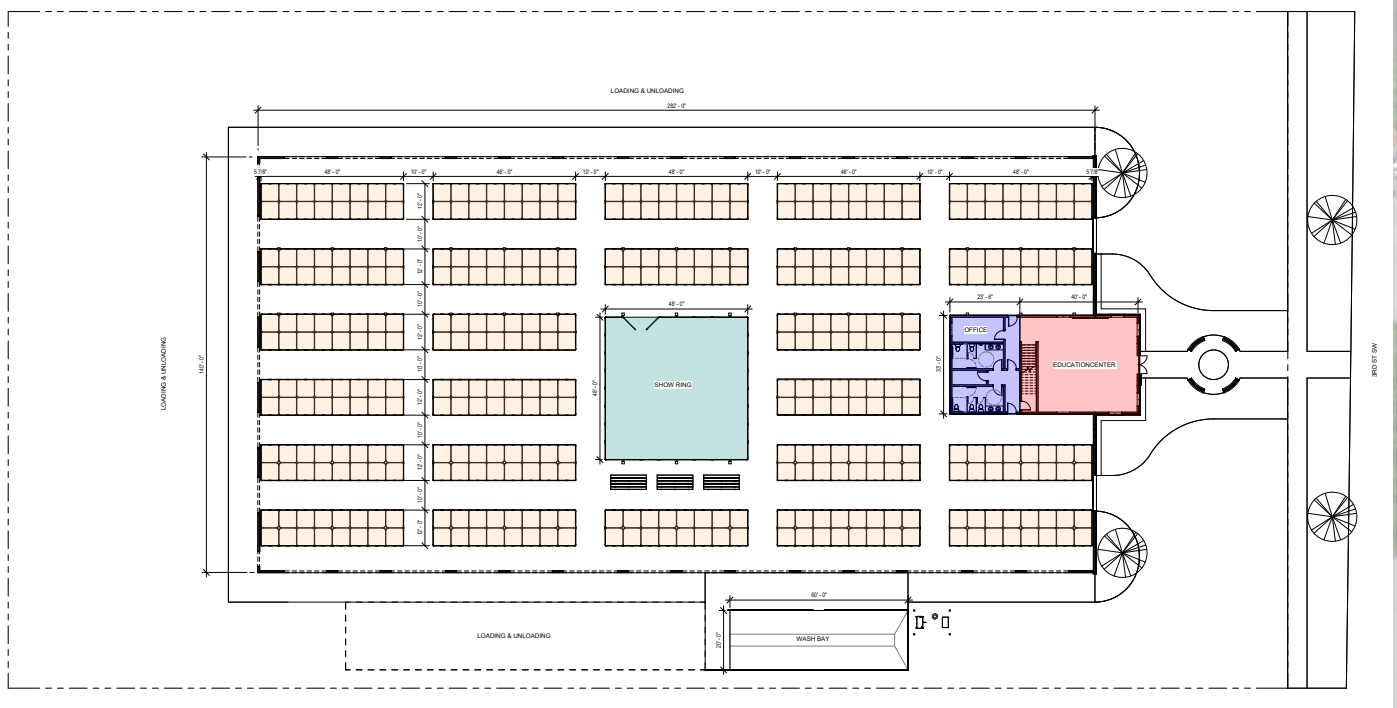

For 135 years, the South Dakota State Fair has been a place to celebrate youth and agriculture. Since the early 1950s, the Open Class Sheep Barn has been a part of that celebration. It held many memories and has been an important part of the culture of the South Dakota State Fairgrounds, but since the old barn had outlived its' useful life, it is time to 'RAISE The SHED.'

The SHED will be the new home for Open Class Sheep during the annual State Fair and will serve as a multi-use facility for other livestock and equine events during non-fair time.

The footprint will encompass an area in between the 4-H Livestock Complex and National Guard Armory
